English Practice Worksheet (2020-21)
Class: IV

Q1. Read the given passage and answer the following questions.

Lipun was so happy. It was his birthday. When he got home from school, there were blue and white balloons on the gate. There was a big sign that read, "Happy Birthday, Lipun!"

His sister met him at the gate. "We are playing a birthday game", his sister said. "You have to find your gift. Here is your first clue". She gave Lipun a small piece of folded paper. Lipun looked at it carefully. He opened the note and began to read, "Clue number 1: Look inside the car." So he looked inside the car and found a plastic dog bone with other note stuck on it. Lipun took off the note and began to read "Clue number 2: Go to the front Veranda." Lipun went to the veranda. There on the swing was a big bag of dog food with another note. He quickly read the third note. "Clue number 3: Look at the back door of the house." Lipun went to the back door and there was a dog's leash. "Hmmm," he thought. "A dog bone, dog's food and a dog's leash...but we don't have a dog." The note on the leash asked him to go outside. Lipun did so and saw a red doghouse with a dog with a big bow on it! "That must be my next clue," he thought. He began to walk towards the doghouse, but before he got there, a little brown puppy ran up to him. It had a note on it. The note said "Happy Birthday, Lipun".

He picked the puppy up and it licked his face over and over again. Lipun was so happy! He loved his new puppy and gave it some dog biscuits. "I will name her 'happy', because she had made me so happy today", Lipun said. He gave his mom, dad and sister a big hug. "Thank You", he said with a smile, "This is the best Birthday ever!"

A1.Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:

Some people are afraid of bugs such as spiders or beetles. But there is one bug that just about everybody likes—pill bugs. If you ever pick one up, you know why its nickname is “roly-poly.” A pill bug rolls up into a tight little ball to protect itself. This bug is scared of you, not the other way around! These little gray or brown bugs can be found almost everywhere in the United States except the desert. That is because they need to stay moist. But they can live in dry places like California thanks to lawn sprinklers. One of their favorite hang-outs is under damp flower pots. Did you know that pill bugs have something in common with kangaroos? After her eggs hatch, the mother pill bug carries her young in a pouch under her belly. The little pill bugs stay there until they are big enough to be on their own. Pill bugs also have something in common with snakes. Just as snakes shed their skin when it gets too small, pill bugs do too. This is called “molting.” A pill bug molts about five times until it is full-grown. Pill bugs are a little like owls, too. Pill bugs are nocturnal, meaning they are most active at night. That is when they most like to wander around and look for food. And just like earthworms, pill bugs help break down plants in the soil. Pill bugs aren’t just nice bugs. They are also interesting ones!

Q1. Why are pill bugs nicknamed “roly-poly”?

- b. A pill bug molts about five times until it is full-grown.
- c. Pill bugs aren't just nice bugs; they are interesting ones.
- d. One of their favorite hang-outs is under damp flower pots.

A2. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:

Achoo! We all sneeze sometimes. Sneezing is a reflex that your body does automatically. That means you cannot make yourself sneeze or stop one once it has started. When you sneeze, your body is trying to get rid of bad things in your nose, such as bacteria. You have extra germs when you have a cold, so you sneeze a lot more. You might also sneeze when you smell pepper! Inside your nose, there are hundreds of tiny hairs. These hairs filter the air you breathe. Sometimes dust and pollen find their way through these hairs and bother your nasal passages. The nerves in the lining of your nose tell your brain that something is invading your body. Your brain, lungs, nose, mouth, and the muscles of your upper body work together to blow away the invaders with a sneeze. When you sneeze, germs from your nose get blown into the air. Using a tissue or “sneezing into your sleeve” captures most of these germs. It is very important to wash your hands after you sneeze into them, especially during cold and flu season. Do you ever sneeze when you walk into bright sunlight? About 25% of people experience this phenomenon. Scientists believe that the brain gets confused when signals from the optic nerve trigger the sneezing reflex in direct sunlight. This usually runs in families.

- 1. Which parts of your body work together when you sneeze?
- 2. Why do some people sneeze when they walk into bright sunlight?
- 3. Complete the information from the article.
